

SEE YOU AT THE POLE™

GLOBAL DAY OF STUDENT-LED PRAYER

Students across the world are joining together for the Global Day of Student Prayer.

See You At The Pole is on Wednesday, Sept. 24th @ 7:00AM @ Flagpole by Middle School (by door W).

God wants to do amazing things through the students at Illini Central. It all starts with PRAYER.

WHAT IS PRAYER, ANYWAY? Prayer is a spiritual conversation with the God of all Creation. He's so powerful, yet so close to us. He loves when we just talk with Him, He loves to hear us tell Him our problems, worries, doubts, and fears. He wants to hear your joys, struggles, and pains. He wants to communicate with you everyday, SYATP is a special time to gather with other students to PRAY. .

*(STUDENTS LEAD THIS, not youth groups or youth leaders)

HERE ARE SOME AREAS TO PRAY FOR:

☐ PRAY for School Teachers

For fresh ways to connect with and teach students
For their families to be strong and healthy

☐ PRAY for School Leaders / Administration

For wisdom to lead our school
For creative insights for school projects

☐ PRAY for Friends

For wisdom and understanding in their classes
For them to make right choices

☐ PRAY for Students dealing with depression or anxiety

For this pressure to be lifted
For God to use me to be light in their darkness

☐ PRAY for those dealing with Family struggles

For Parents to understand and connect with their kids
For healing and restoration of broken relationships

☐ PRAY for Local city/town and State officials

That they will understand and respond to the needs of our communities
Financial wisdom to manage projects that help our community

☐ PRAY for Government leaders

That they be led with godly wisdom
That they would have a personal experience with God that will transform their lives

☐ PRAY for Local Youth Groups

That they would be light and hope in the halls of Illini Central
That they would experience growth and deeper commitment to Jesus

Lord, I am filled with awe! Habakkuk 3:2
